FIFTEEN CENTS

Antioch getting known as Santa's local home

by ROGER RUTHHART

Residents of the Village of Antioch wouldn't be at all surprised to see Santa Claus driving through town or doing his weekly shopping here.

That's because the village is growing increasingly famous as Santa's home away from home.

The seed was planted several years ago as a result of a Santa's Mailbox effort operated by Dan DeFosse and his collection of local elves which after moving to Antioch spread from a Lake County operation to one of international proportions.

Each year the volunteer "elves" answer an increasing number of letters from children addressed to Santa Claus at his Toyland Rd. address in Antioch.

The village board established an official Toyland Rd. and this year is active in establishing a year 'round residence for the jolly fat man, right here in Antioch.

Again this year, DeFosse and his elves will be answering letters, probably upwards of 8,000 of them. But the economy, a congressional campaign and unemployment have hampered DeFosse's ability to underwrite as much of the costs as he has in the past, so he has been busy seeking some special backers.

Meanwhile, the old RTA building, a white building located by the water tower, has been designated as Santa Claus' year 'round home in Antioch and Antioch will be the only village to provide an official year 'round home for Santa.

According to Claudette Skvarce, the building will soon be decorated with Christmas scenes of a three-dimensional nature.

The project, co-sponsored by the Antioch Jaycees, is expected to be completed by about Feb. 1.

Antioch artist Ted Hannigan is the artist in charge of the project and he is looking for high school and adult volunteer "elves" to help with the art portion of the project.

Also being sought are donations of plywood

ACHS oks tax levy

At the Antioch Community High School Board of Education's regular meeting, held on Thursday, Nov. 18, the board approved the levy for 1982 in the amount of $2,514,000. This levy should reflect practically no increase in the individual tax bills of the districts electors for next year.

Business Manager Kenneth Wierschem apprised the board that an application has been made for one of the new block grants under Chapter 2 which would provide $10,533 for education supplies and equipment.

Outstanding Citizenship Award Learmont cited for boat accident heroics

Glenn Learmont an Antioch High School 1978 graduate, was honored with the Antioch 1982 Outstanding Citizenship Award for his heroic rescue of four members of a boating accident on Lake Marie July 25.

Antioch Mayor Raymond Toft presented Learmont with a plaque denoting the event and the Masonic Master Wilbur Gers and Governor of the Moose Jim Page each presented Learmont with a $100 check on behalf of their organizations.

Learmont, while injured himself, removed three friends, Chuck Py, Christ Mors and Brenda Volling from the water and placed them on the broken pontoon boat while he carried Peggy Page to shore. With the help of the Bellucci family, he carried Page up the embankment to the Bellucci home where the Antioch Fire and Rescue Squads were summoned.

All grateful families were on hand to hear Moose Governor Jim Page relieve the July event. Learmont's family including his mother and father, Gloria and Bob Learmont, one brother Robbie, one sister Bonnie and her husband Les from California and their baby Kyle were on hand along with Glenn's grandparents, aunt and two cousins.

A dinner for 75 followed the ceremony.

The two lodges began this presentation last year and announced that each year they would continue with the event.

Recommend heaters Energy auditors view old grade school

by GLORIA DAVIS

The Lakes Region Historical Society is progressing with its plans to renovate the old grade school on Main St. into a local historical museum.

Al Little, president of the historical society, accompanied by Walt Sheppard, committee chairman, Jack Boubelik, vice-president of the Illinois Energy Audit Assn., and Mickey Bowman went through the school on an energy audit.

Bowman is a training supervisor from DMC Energy Inc. working on federal grant funds with the audit association.

The building was gone over from roof to basement and the suggestions of the energy saving experts are at present being checked to see that their implementation will not conflict with the regulations required in gaining grant funding for the project.

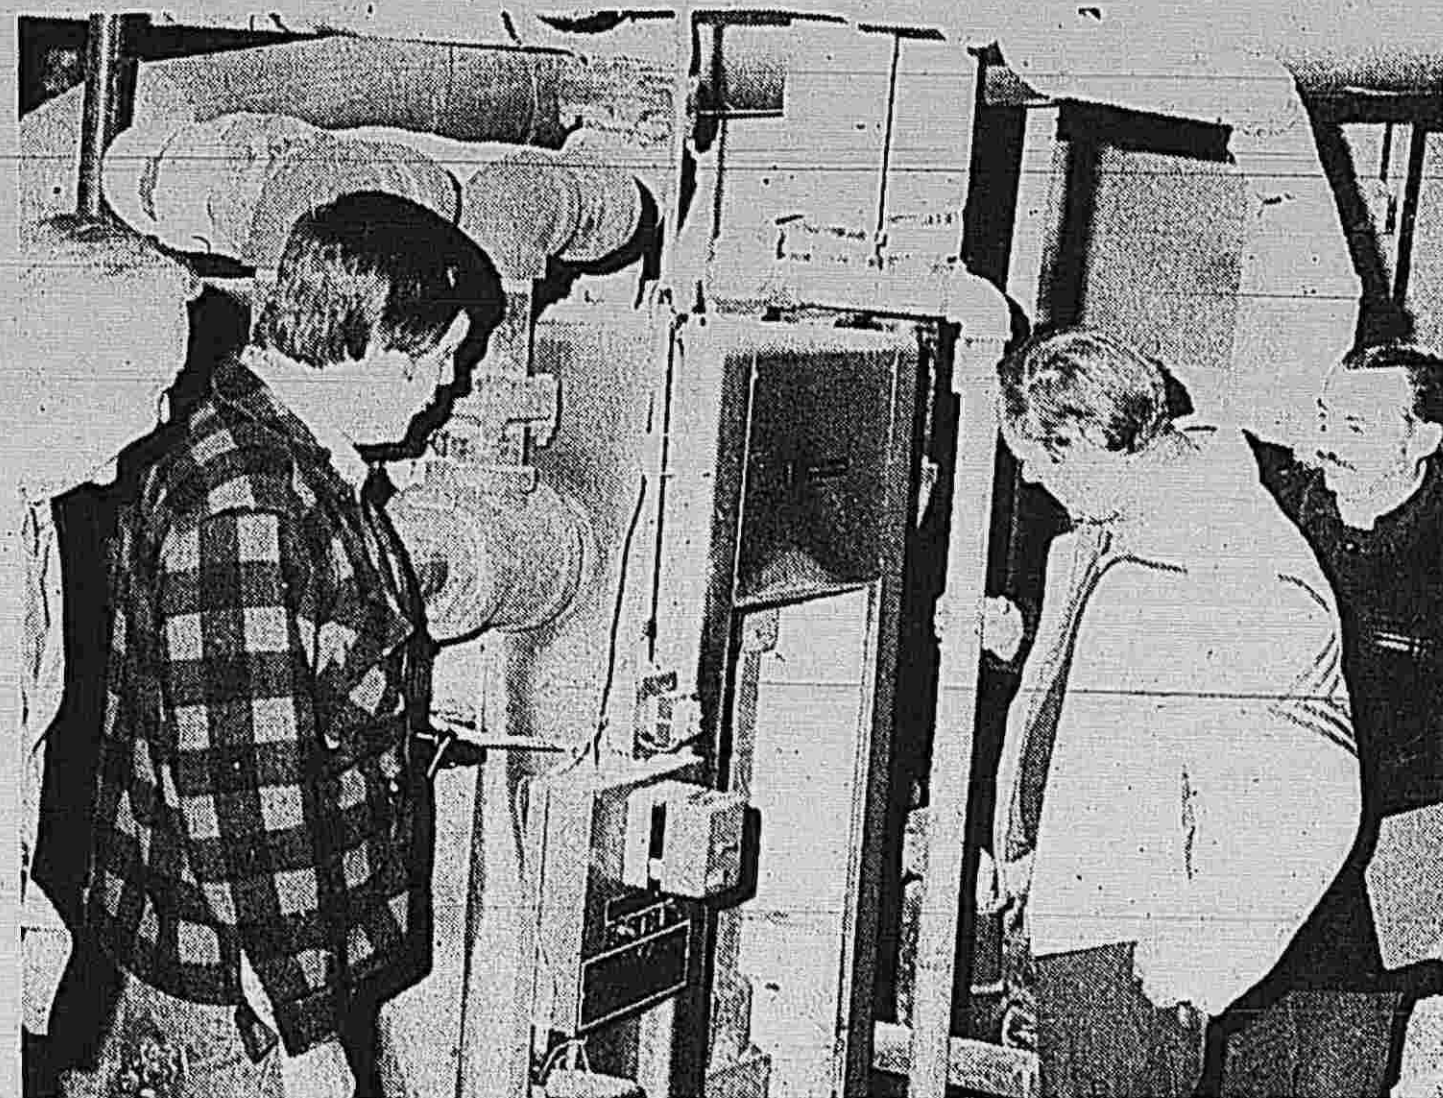

Individual gas heaters for each room were recommended. The cost of heating the building this way will be based on the rate of three cents per square foot given to non-profit organizations.

Much insulation of the building is needed and the extra space already there between the walls and the bricks will make insulating the building easy.

Anyone interested in working or contributing to the historical society can contact it by writing to P.O. Box 240, Antioch, Ill., 60002.

The next meeting of the historical society will be a working one at the State Bank of Antioch, at 7:30 p.m., on Thursday, Dec. 2.

Year-end reports will be given by members of the active committees at that meeting.

Legion plans holiday party

The members of the Antioch American Legion Auxiliary Unit 748 have been busy carrying out the programs they are involved in.

They have been taking part in the Veterans Day Observance at the cemetery and serving cake and coffee to other participants including the Post members and members of the VFW.

Dorothy Horan and Helen DeVries attended a bingo party at the North Chicago V.A. Hospital which this unit sponsored. President Betty Davis, 10th District Chairpersons Helen DeVries and Eunice Rathmann, Eva Fields and Myra Randall all attended the recent 10th District meeting in Lake Zurich.

Eunice Rathmann has taken part in shopping for Christmas gifts brought to the various children's homes in the area.

Abiding with the wishes of the administrators in these homes, each child receives a gift valued at $2, or they elect to receive one large (or several smaller) group gifts. In 1982, over $9,800.00 was equally shared by the American Legion and Auxiliary Units throughout Illinois to fund this program.

All of the legion and auxiliary members, families and friends are invited to attend the Christmas party, Dec. 6, with a potluck supper, cards and games.

Everyone is being again asked to bring small gifts suitable for use as game prizes for future parties at the V.A. hospital and/or toys for the Toys for Tots program. Members in charge are hoping for a good turnout.

HOMECOMING QUEEN— Joanie Cilik was chosen the 1982 Homecoming Queen at Downers Grove North High School. She is the daughter of Joan Cilik of Woodridge and Frank Cilik of Antioch.

186 gather for AARP meeting

One of the largest crowds of the year attended the meeting of Antioch Chapter 387, American Association of Retired Persons (AARP) at the senior center on Tuesday, Nov. 23.

There were 182 members and four guests present to hear President Ruth Ryn- ders preside over a short meeting.

Esther Aiani, assistant state director, read an appropriate Thanksgiving poem. She thanked the members who donated beautiful and useful articles for the Christmas project.

The items will be gift-wrapped and distributed to several area nursing homes. Glenn Peterson announced there are still a few tickets left for the shopping trip to the new Grand Ave. Mall in Milwaukee, Wis. on Friday, Dec. 10. Call him, (414) 857-7492 if you would like to go. Norman Mackenzie and Christian DeYoung were honored with a rendition of Happy Birthday in honor of their 91st and 95th birthdays respectively. Blanche Babic announced that membership dues for 1983 will be collected at the meeting on Jan. 11.

Following the meeting a successful fund-raising event of items donated by members was conducted by Ceil Geist with the assistance of Veronica Gahlbeck.

The Christmas party will be held at noon, Dec. 14 at the Windjammer Restaurant in Antioch.

SUPPORT RESCUE SQUAD— Lynne Sterbenz and Dan Spies are selling Christmas trees at Antioch Bowling Lanes parking lot. For every tree purchased, they are donating one dollar to Antioch Rescue Squad and fire department. Free coffee and hot chocolate are being served as well.

Grade School pupils go crazy on computers

by GLORIA DAVIS

It looks like the students of Antioch Grade School have proven to be quicker on the computer switch than expected.

At the last meeting of the Antioch Grade School Board of Education, on Tuesday, Nov. 16, Supt. Don Skidmore told the board that the planned computer program seems to be way ahead of its two year schedule.

An inservice training program has already been completed by 57 teachers and school staff members and the junior high school classes are already deeply involved in learning the workings of the Apple 2 Computer.

"It looks as if we'll be ready to move into the elementary classes by the fall semester," said Skidmore.

The grade school district now has two Apple 2 Computers.

The board approved the protective fencing of the much-vandalized field house with eight-inch chain link fencing with a V-barbed wire on top.

The proposed cost of the fence amounts to $2,162.

In other business the teachers of the grade school district, represented by the teacher's federation president, Peg Zurek and secretary, Linda Dawson, were at the meeting to sign the contract both sides had previously agreed upon.

A report to the board on the head-lice situation that has appeared at the Petty and Antioch school buildings this fall was also heard at the meeting.

All the schools in the grade school district have held three inspections of the students.

The lower grade school had approximately 30 cases, Petty, 31, and Oakland 1 case of the contagious problem.

Flyers on the treatment of head lice as well as its prevention have already been sent to the parents.

This problem is not unique to Antioch this year because the warm weather has greatly contributed to the problem.

Woman's Club to share Christmas memories

The Antioch Woman's Club annual Christmas Party and Guest Day will be held on Monday, Dec. 6, at 1 p.m., in the State Bank of Antioch.

Instead of a gift exchange, members will be contributing $3 towards purchase of Christmas gifts for veterans in the V.A. Hospital.

A program entitled "Christmas Memories" will be presented by Carolyn Stein Stillman. Mrs. Stillman is a play and book reviewer, actress and teacher who received her masters in education at the University of Chicago.

She has played leading roles in theatres from coast to coast and presently is a member of the board of directors of the Chicago Drama League and board of governors of the Sarah Siddons Society.

The hostess committee, headed by Genevieve Mularski, will be: Thelma Anderson, Kathleen Cirone, Rene Cleven, Carol Delaney, Anna Mae Dziki, Irene Lang, Evelyn Magnuson, Ann Simbrowsky, Jean Stanley, Dorothy Ware and Lorraine Toton.

IN BALLET

Antioch resident Sara Hamlin plays a dragonfly in the Chicago City Ballet's annual production of "Cinderella", which opened an 11-performance run Nov. 19 at the Auditorium Theatre.

HELP FOR THE NEEDY—Part of Antioch Rotary Club's commitment to the community was expressed in 15 Thanksgiving baskets shared with needy families in the community. Assisting in Rotary project were, from left, Reed Ano, Buc Sichowski, Paul Maginot and Steve Williams.

The Time Machine

FIFTY YEARS AGO: Dec. 1, 1932

One celluloid toy horn was the lone contribution to one of Antioch's clubs' calls for toys for needy children. Antioch's Parent-Teacher Assn. netted an $18 profit at a card party it held.

The News ran an ad featuring both an electric percolator and a sandwich toaster for $6.96; an electric waffle iron for $3.45 and salmon, two cans for 29 cents.

The News ran a drive to recirculate $2,000 into the merchandising community by offering to return $1 certificates good for purchases in any store that advertised in the paper the week previous to the purchase of a $2 subscription to the News.

THIRTY YEARS AGO: Nov. 27, 1952

The new gym at Antioch High School was initiated with a basketball game against Dundee High School. Charles Horton enlisted in the U.S. Air Force.

A date was set for the referendum on adding eight classrooms to the existing Antioch Grade School buildings.

Dr. Berns was offering eye glasses for $8.50 and the News carried an ad for the new Studebaker Commander V-8.

Joanne Paddock and David Vose received awards for their 4-H record books of club projects.

TEN YEARS AGO: Nov. 29, 1972

Ed Roach and Jean Rockow were in charge of the sale of new license plates at the State Bank. The bank sold a record 11,000 license plates last year.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Schultis were busy restoring dolls and toys for the annual Marine Corps Toys For Tots collection.

The Joe Rush family hosted three recruits from Great Lakes Naval Base for Thanksgiving dinner.

Alison Hevrdejs won a 4-H scholarship from the Santa Fe Railroad System for her overall excellence in 4-H.

The Sequoit cagers tied for first place in the Barrington Thanksgiving Basketball Tourney.

The Haley family was informed that Jerry Haley had married a Japanese bride named Rumiko, and Ed Haley was preparing to move to Antioch from California.

Letter To The Editor

Fight Illegal Aliens

Editor:

The continued intrusion of aliens into the United States — unwanted except by employers who wish to exploit their cheap labor, is a greater problem than we realize.

Every illegal alien who works on the migrant farm, who is employed as a factory worker, or who works in the restaurant industry pose serious problems to legal American citizens.

Large numbers of illegal aliens hold jobs in these and many more occupations. Illegal aliens vote, draw welfare, receive Social Security and other public benefits.

I feel it is an invasion of our basic rights as Americans to be taxed for their benefit.

The Supreme Court saw to it that we are taxed to provide schooling for children of these illegal aliens.

Let us demand from our legislators the enforcement of already existing laws to relieve us of the burden of supporting these illegal aliens who also have relieved citizens of the burden of employment.

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

I see where Dan and Angie Maras' most athletic son, Dee, of the famous Sequoit 1982 cagers, is again on the varsity basketball team at the University of Illinois.

Last year Dee, as a mere frosh, played in 12 of Illinois' games.

Here's news of two of Antioch's contributions to Uncle Sam. Pvt. Patrick G. Karczewski, son of Arthur J. Karczewski, has completed one station unit training at the U.S. Army Infantry school at Ft. Benning, Ga.

Army Reserve Pvt. Eric V. Gholston, son of Clara B. and Glenn A. Arnerud, Antioch, has completed his basic training at Fort Bliss, Tex.

My spies tell me that Laura L. Stalley has pledged the Chi Oega Sorority at Augustana College, Rock Island.

Congrats to Debbie Pearse, Antioch 4-Her who was one of five selected for an "I Dare You" award in recognition of excellence in character and well balanced personal development as well as leadership potential.

A belated Happy Birthday to Floyd Horton, who celebrated his 90th birthday, from 1 to 3 p.m., on Nov. 7, at the Antioch American Legion Hall.

Horton, a veteran of World War 1, shattered his arm in the Battle of the Argonne.

Over 122 guests attended the party to pay tribute to Horton and his accomplishments. He was also presented with a key to Antioch by Mayor Ray Toft.

With Thanksgiving being one of the official times that we should especially display love and sharing for all men, it does my heart warm to read that Sequoit Lodge 827 distributed its annual Thanksgiving baskets to needy families all with greetings from the lodge.

Will anyone knowing the whereabouts of a George Nelson, who reportedly married an English girl named Mary Jamieson when he was an Army sergeant serving in England, sometime between 1943 and 1945, notify the Antioch News office.

We have inquiries from their godchild in Suffolk, England, who last heard that they returned to Antioch after the war where Nelson owned an ice cream parlor.

Meanwhile, DeFosse hopes it will be business as usual this year, although he admits "the project needs help for it to continue."

Mail is coming in already, but DeFosse is looking for a special donor or donors to underwrite the cost of stationary.

Most organizations, Defosse explained, who might be interested in supporting the project, want their name all over it. "That is what has destroyed Christmas to some degree already," he explained.

"It's not realistic for a kid to get a letter with the name or a bank for club on the envelope. Kids aren't dumb, they know better. We want to keep this part of Christmas uncommercialized."

"And we want to convince kids that Santa has a home in Lake County," he added.

DeFosse explained that the letter writing program involves about 70 volunteer letter writers and provides many worthwhile side affects for all involved.

"In a way, it's given a rebirth to the original Santa Claus and it gives a feeling of bringing back the spirit of Christmas. We don't create a big toy shop attitude, but rather try to instill the spirit of giving and tell children 'you'll probably find something special under the tree this year'." DeFosse explained.

Letters are different for each child, depending on what they might write about or ask in their letters. "The only thing we've lied about is what reindeer eat. They've been eating pizza for three years now," said DeFosse smiling.

DeFosse said that writing letters is good for the letter writers as well. "Some people are totally depressed about Christmas but find writing letters to the children very uplifting," DeFosse added. "It really helps two people at once because many times it helps the elves too."

Despite the fact that the program is being hindered itself by the economy, DeFosse says it is more important than ever when times are bad. "We get letters from kids with everything and from kids with nothing. The kids with nothing usually are asking for something like a job for the mom or dad, or world peace. We try and respond in a way that will also help relieve the pressure for some of the families and we get letters back from parents thanking us for the way we handled their child's requests," DeFosse explained.

The general approach is something like "Santa does the best he can. He has a lot of children to make toys for, but you'll find something special this year," DeFosse said. But this year, the economy has even hit Santa Claus rather deeply.

DeFosse estimates his beginning cost for the program will be about $300-$400 for paper and envelopes and then the postage costs will be added on top of that.

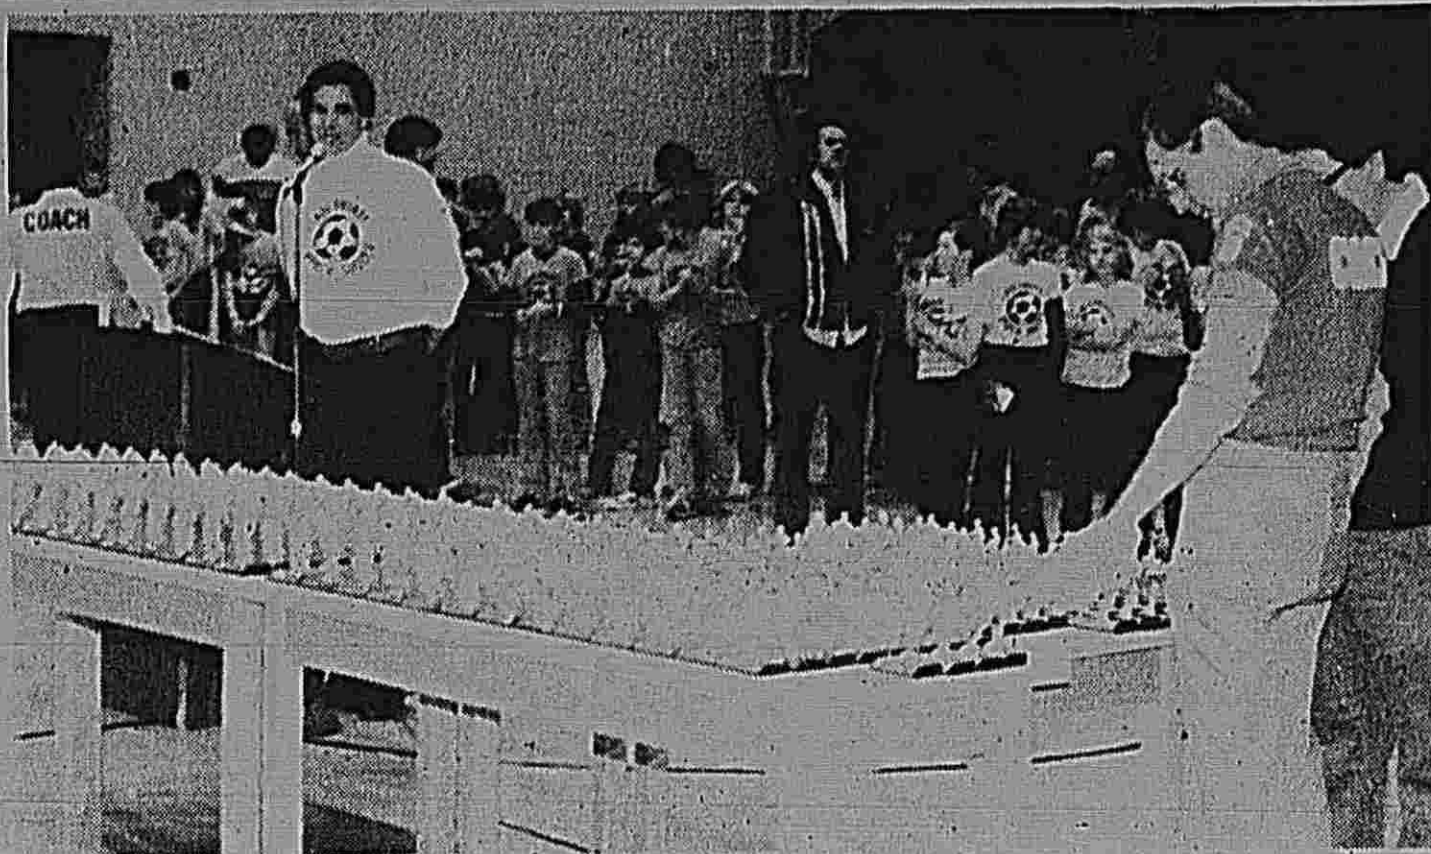

But despite the cost and the fact that the program might be cut back or curtailed this year, DeFosse says he will not put anyone's name on the envelope other than Santa's. "It demeans the whole concept."

"We don't want it to be a money maker or a profit thing, although it probably could be," said DeFosse. "Kids know that a bank isn't related to Santa Claus."

"We're in danger this year of having a really bad year if somebody doesn't help us out. We're hoping that someone will reach in to their own pocket to help out some other kids," he added.

"It's one of the few things that's not commercialized at Christmas time. When kids get that letter from Santa, they say 'Now I know you're really real.'"

"For years this in this country we filled the tree up, but now many parents aren't able to do that and our letters from Santa make things easier for the whole family and still help instill a real spirit of Christmas," DeFosse said.

700 YOUNGSTERS HONORED—Lindenhurst Recreation Dept. Youth Soccer League honored players and volunteers with award ceremony at Antioch High School. Name 'Footlights' winners

The gaily decorated halls of St. Peter School, Antioch, were really "jumpin'" recently when parishoners of St. Peter (with a lot of help from their friends!) transformed the school and gym from a center of education to an exciting center of entertainment.

Entertainers from nine different restaurants, showrooms and entertainment centers filled the night club atmosphere with a variety of talents... singing and dancing to the sounds of down home country western music and the showtunes of Broadway, comedy skits and melodramatic acting, and just plain FUN!

A number of prizes and promotional gimmicks enticed guests to the various entertainment offerings, including wooden nickels from "Country Is..." and official kisses from "Hot Lips" of "M*A*S*H"!

Also, in addition to the epicurean delights and entertainment offered in the German style beer garden restaurant "Unter den Linden", a raffle was held for three beautiful Pickard china bells with pewter handles which were donated by Johnson Jewelers, Antioch.

The winners of the raffle were: Thursday, Ted Frydry (Antioch); Friday, Frances Childs (Lake Villa); and Saturday, Nancy Mirek (Antioch).

The main committee of "Footlights '82", Ted Sokulski, Hank and Ricky Apostol, Gail Marcquenski, Jim Haley and Bruce Pagni, would like to take this opportunity to thank all of those who were involved in the preparations and presentation of "Footlights '82": room managers, entertainers, workers/crews, St. Peter staff and school children, "Angels", sponsors and guests... "we salute you with heartfelt love and gratitude for your contributions to our effort."

"See you next year!"

There will also be a used square dance clothing sale for dancers wishing to recycle items they no longer want. Please have each item marked with your name and price.

Caller for the evening will be Ted Palmen, club caller. A variety of lines, mixers and rounds will be cued by Doris Palmen, with a workshop on round of the month at 7:40 p.m. New dancers are invited to bring their callers with them.

Refreshments will be served following the dance at 10:30 p.m. For any further information please call (414) 857-2513.

Chamber asks village for booklet donation

The Antioch Village Board has made no decision on the amount of money, if any, that the village will contribute towards the $7,000 payment for the printing of 2,000, 32 page booklets profiling the village.

The Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry, which is spearheading the project geared to attract more industry to the area, asked the board for a contribution of no less than $1,500 and hopefully as much as $2,500 towards the project.

The remainder of the cost is expected to come from advertisers, donors and Chamber members.

A suggestion at the meeting that a $3 charge per booklet would pay for most of the cost was put down by Antioch Mayor Ray Toft and Board Members William Seemann, Vern Barnstable and Claudette Skvarce, who all agreed that the book should be a handout if it is to draw people to the area.

Yule season, contest deadline around corner

That cold nip is in the air and thoughts are starting to turn toward holiday frivolity. That means the deadline for entering Lakeland Newspapers' annual Christmas Theme Contest can't be far behind.

Deadline for this year's contest, which is once again tied in to the annual Toys For Tots drive, is Friday, Dec. 10.

Talented young writers and artists have until that date to submit their entries in Lakeland Newspapers' annual Christmas Theme Contest, which Lakeland Newspapers will once again hold to help promote the annual Toys For Tots Christmas drive in conjunction with the U.S. Marine Corps Reserves.

Once again this year the contest is planned to help promote and benefit the Toys For Tots drive. Contest participants have from now until Dec. 10 to submit entries in the annual Christmas Theme Contest. A toy donation with entries is requested.

Lakeland Newspapers offices in Antioch, Grayslake, Fox Lake, Wauconda, and North Chicago will serve as drop off points for the Toys For Tots drive.

This year's contest will feature prizes in three different age groups.

Entries in Group I, ages five to eight, should draw a picture depicting "Christmas At My House," using crayons, markers or pen on a regular sized sheet of paper.

Entries in Class II, ages 9 to 13, should write a theme, 500 words or less following the theme of "The Meaning of Christmas Giving."

The third category, Class III, ages 14 to adult, should be a theme, 500 words or less stating "What Christmas Giving Means To Me."

One grand prize will be awarded along with first, second third place prizes in each category.

All entries must have name, address, town and category entered and phone number on the entry. Themes and pictures will not be returned to participants and all entries become the property of Lakeland Newspapers.

Decision of the judges will be final and judging will be based on originality, creativity and neatness of presentation. Entries to the contest must be appropriate to the theme. Winners will be notified by mail.

Winners will be published in Lakeland Newspapers Christmas issues of Dec. 23. All entries must be postmarked no later than Dec. 10 and sent to Lakeland Newspapers, Box 268, Grayslake, Ill. 60030.

However, entrants are urged to drop off entries at one of the five Lakeland Newspapers offices and include a toy donation to Toys For Tots along with their contest entry.

READY AND WAITING—ABC's Frank Mathie prepares to witness the first takeoff from the smallest aircraft carrier in the world, based at Steitz' Resort, Antioch.

Ready for takeoff

On a chilling November day over the icy waters of Grass Lake, a daring pilot named Dave Sears of Bollingbrook made a breathtaking ascent off this tiny aircraft carrier.

Dave Sears, has been flying airplanes since he was a teenager and is presently selling Hummingbird Ultralites (his company is Lite-Wings Co.). This twin engine plane, with only 16 horsepower, facing directly into winds approximately 15 to 17 mph, made a dramatic take off, aboard a homemade wooden pontoon boat. The boat designed by Larry Marchel and John Steitz is 73 feet long 14 feet wide and weighs nine tons.

The boat, powered by two 20 horsepower Johnson Outboard Motors, traveling approximately 10 mph, directly into the wind afforded an awesome and thrilling departure over the waters of Grass Lake.

Using all 73 feet and hovering about two feet over the water for what seemed an incredibly long time, this fragile little plane finally rose to fly into the air.

Mathie, and the film crew filming this event for the Channel 76 p.m. Eyewitness News Show questioned why Sears would do such a dangerous and daring stunt. Sears' answer was "because it's fun!"

Mathie is waiting for spring, and better flying weather, to witness an attempt to land on the world's smallest aircraft carrier. Sears is planning preparation for landing and many are anxiously awaiting his next endeavor.

Antioch cagers prepare for NWSC after 0-3 start

Coming off three losses in the 16th annual Barrington Turkey Classic, the Antioch Sequoits will be looking for their first win of the season, and under first year head coach Don Zeman, when Round Lake comes to Antioch 8 p.m., Friday, Dec. 3.

Besides the game being the first appearance for Zeman's squad before the home town fans, it will also be the Northwest Suburban Conference (NWSC) opener for both teams.

The Panthers, under head coach Jim Prorok are also looking for their first notch in the win column after losing three straight in their own holiday tournament along with a non-conference loss to Carmel in their opening game of the season.

"They're always tougher then-nails for us," Zeman commented on Round Lake.

"We have to get our experienced people ready," he said, referring to several Sequoits who were with the football squad up until just a few days before the opening of the Barrington tournament.

During the first three outings, the Sequoits showed signs of having difficulty adjusting to full-court pressure.

With more time working together as a unit, Zeman is confident that the Sequoits will be able to overcome the large number of turnovers which plagued them in the three games at Barrington.

"When it was just thrown at us," he said of the problems with handling presses at Barrington, "it's a little too much to handle with as little time as we've been able to work together."

"We definitely will get better," he concluded.

Senior forward Phil Aschbacher was the leading scorer for the Sequoits with 16 points in the Sequoits' 77-47 loss to host Barrington on Nov. 24.

Also in double figures was junior guard Don Korjenek with 12.

Defensively, Korjenek and junior guard Tom McLellan played well.

On the boards, Aschbacher pulled down 13 rebounds to lead the Sequoit effort there.

"It was a pretty physical game," commented Zeman, "with a lot of boards for Barrington."

The Broncos out-rebounded Antioch 55-30, of which many were offensive rebounds which were converted into baskets.

"Most of their offensive points came off of rebounds," Zeman admitted.

"The pressed us the whole game," he said of the other area which the Sequoits had a problem handling.

"We just weren't ready to handle that with the lack of time we had together," he added.

In what Zeman described as the "best game of the tournament" for his Sequoits, Antioch fell nine points short of the Libertyville Wildcats from the North Suburban Conference, 72-63 on Nov. 26.

Dan Berkiel, junior forward who was one of several Sequoit players who did not begin basketball practice until Nov. 22 due to football, was the leading scorer as he got on track offensively with 16 points.

Aschbacher continued a steady offensive output with 15 points, while Chris Becker, senior center and also a football player, added 13.

Sound defensive performances were turned in by Randy Mowen, senior forward, and Craig Sheedlo, senior guard who was also a member of the football team.

Despite the Wildcats leading throughout the game, the Sequoits kept fighting back as they stayed within striking distance.

At a couple of junctures during the second half, the Sequoits closed within four and five points.

For the second game in a row, the Sequoits were bothered by defensive pressure.

"They press hurt," Zeman admitted. "We had too many turnovers."

In all, the Sequoits gave up the ball 26 times.

One area of the game which the Sequoits improved on was the boards, as they outrebounded the Wildcats 46-40.

Against Elgin Larkin on Nov. 27, Berkiel was the lone double figure scorer with 15 points as Antioch lost 56-44.

Becker and Tom Anderson, senior forward, each added six points.

"We had some real good rebounding efforts," he said, noting the Sequoits won the battle of the boards 38-32.

Aschbacher and Becker were the mainstays for the Sequoits on the boards.

The Sequoits cut down their turnovers to 20.

"We were pressed again, which was our biggest difficulty," he explained.

"Defensively, we had an all-around good game."

"We're trying to cut down on points," he said. "We did that, but we didn't have the offensive punch."

"We had a difficult time coming back, especially mentally, from Friday's game," he admitted.

"We played as many as we could," he said of using a lot of players in each of the first three games.

The fewest players the Sequoits used in a game was 11.

"The football athletes will continue to improve," he said. "There are some things they'll be able to do one or two months from now."

FLOSSING

Q: Why did my dentist tell me to floss? Just how important is it in the care of teeth?

A: Flossing is a vital preventive measure that reaches where the toothbrush cannot—between the teeth, below the gum margin, and along the edges of any previous dental work such as fillings, crowns, etc. Because it can reach each tooth's available surface, flossing is able to remove and disrupt plaque, the tooth's natural enemy.

Work the floss gently from the gum line to the biting edge between teeth, wrapping it alternately around the front and back tooth surfaces until the tooth feels clean.

Flossing should be performed at least once a day, along with thorough brushing and rinsing. Together, these steps eliminate plaque, gently massage gums, prevent progression of periodontal disease (bone-destroying pyorrhea), and keep the mouth clean and healthy.

Whitton's 4-H project receives top honor

Lorna Whitton, 19, Lake County 4-H'er, won top honors for her 1982 4-H foods project, and received a trip to the 61st National 4-H Congress, Nov. 28-Dec. 2, in Chicago.

Whitton is among 30 Illinois 4-H'ers chosen by the Cooperative Extension Service for state awards arranged by National 4-H Council.

Whitton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Whitton, Antioch, was a winner in the food preservation program, sponsored by the Kerr Glass Manufacturing Corp.

THE EASTERN Illinois University sophomore, who plans a career as a dietician, did a study on the amount of food her family of four uses in a year.

She found her family consumed 400 pounds of meat, 63 pints of frozen food, 64 containers of canned items and 112 purchased items, for an estimated cost of $4,000.

The 10-year 4-H'er observed that costs can be cut by buying meat from a packing house, canning and freezing in the summer and buying bulk quantities and store specials.

Whitton also experimented with food drying and found the humidity in Illinois contributes to difficulty in drying. She established a combination of drying in the sun and finishing it on the stove top.

THIS ENTAILED making two dryers, one a dishpan dryer and the other made out of sheet metal that sits on two burners of a range.

The 4-H'er prepared copies of directions on how to build the two dryers and distributed handouts in fair displays.

As part of the educational foods program, she also drafted a proposal for a simple 4-H drying project that was submitted to the county 4-H office.

Whitton has also been president of her 4-H Club.

The cast needed is four mature women, three very mature men, and one couple in their late 30's. Dates for this play will be Feb. 11, 12, 18, 19, 20, 25 and 26. "Mornings' At Seven," was the 1980 Tony Award Winning Comedy and will be a challenge for PM&L's Season 22.

St. Catherine's plans Benet Lake center

Recognizing that the problem of chemical dependency is wide spread, and that treatment requires a very special kind of attention, St. Catherine's Hospital of Kenosha announces that their 11-year-old Chemical Dependency Program is expanding to meet the needs of area residents.

A Satellite Hospital for Chemical Dependency will be established by the hospital at the Benedictine Abbey at Benet Lake in southern Kenosha County. The focus of the program is treatment for alcohol-drug problems.

The Satellite Hospital is consistent with the mission of both the Dominican Sisters of Kenosha, who operate St. Catherine's Hospital, and the Benedictine Monks of St. Benedict's Abbey at Benet Lake.

The program is in keeping with the mission to provide quality health services to persons suffering from the disease of alcoholism which includes not only the individual who is drinking, but also the family, friends, relatives, employers, and other significant individuals within that person's life. Such services are designed to achieve and maintain total abstinence and to improve the quality of life of all affected persons.

The mission is in keeping with the philosophy of providing care and comfort for the total person recognizing man's unique composition of body and soul through the concept of total care which embraces the physical, emotional, and spiritual needs of each patient.

Twenty inpatient beds will be available for treatment at the satellite hospital. The detoxification program for inpatients will continue at St. Catherine's Hospital in Kenosha. A medical evaluation process conducted by St. Catherine's Hospital medical staff will screen for admission to the program.

The addition of the Satellite Hospital at Benet Lake strengthens St. Catherine's existing services by offering readily available, high quality care in a tranquil, secluded setting, which is highly conducive to the recovery process. The cost of care will be lower than other chemical dependency programs.

Benet Lake is situated 19 miles from St. Catherine's Hospital in Kenosha, and just north of Antioch. The location is easily accessible to residents of Lake and McHenry counties, as well as western Kenosha and Racine counties. St. Benedict's Abbey is south of Highway C on 224th Ave., between Highways 45 and 83.

The facility will be open in late Spring 1983. For more information about St. Catherine's Satellite Hospital at Benet Lake, call (414) 396-4360.

INSIGHT INTO EYESIGHT

Dr. R. A. Sona,
OPTOMETRIST

YOUR OPTICAL CENTER

When your eye doctor prescribes glasses or contact lenses for you, he'll be giving professional attention to your exact point of viewing.

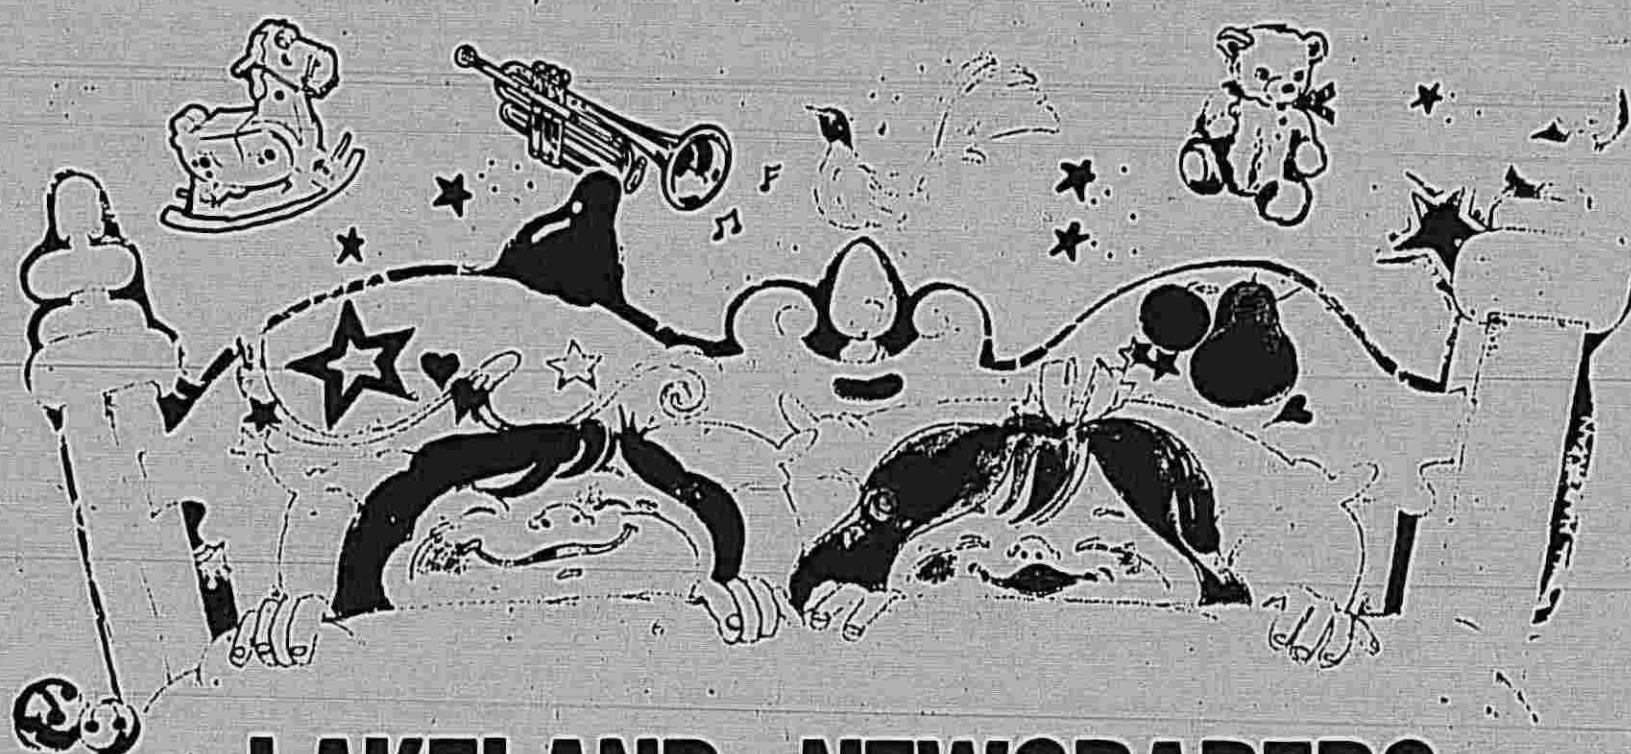

The optical center of the lens is a tiny point positioned directly in front of your pupil. This is the point at which light passes through your eye on its way to the retina. If the image is clear, the retina sends a clear picture to the brain. Then you know exactly what you're seeing. But you can't get a clear image unless the light is bent correctly. That's what corrective lenses do. They bend the light just enough to create a clear image.

Usually, both eyes need correcting, but never in exactly the same way. Each lens has to be specially ground to correct the vision problems in each eye.

Glasses or contact lenses will not cure any structural errors in your eyes. But they'll make it possible for you to see clearly, and comfortably.
